

SON OF TWEED'S FAVORITE GOES TO THE ISLAND

Thomas Hughes Threw Away Fortune Left by Father in Tenderloin.

"I'M ALL IN," HE SAYS.

Asks to Be Sent Away for Six Months in Order to Brace Up.

Standing on the bridge of the West Side Court today Thomas Hughes, son of Tom Hughes, Boss Tweed's favored contractor, told a glib story of a promising outlook and great wealth sacrificed in the strenuous life.

"I'm all in, Judge," he told Magistrate Breen. "Let me go to the island for six months. Maybe it will brace me up."

The Magistrate took one look at the tattered and disheveled figure before him and without comment signed the commitment.

Until five years ago young Tom Hughes was a conspicuous figure along the Great White Way. A few years before old Tom Hughes, sr., had died.
All his wealth, accumulated in years of association with the profligate Tweed, had been left to the boy.

Young Tom landed in the Tenderloin with an explosion. Yellowbacks strewn his path. For several years he kept up the pace. But in time the bankroll became lean and the human leeches of the underworld picked him to the bone. He passed out of the Tenderloin and was quickly forgotten.

Lieut. William Ennis, of the West side court, was passing the Eighth avenue and Fifty-third street station of the elevated today when he saw a tramp sitting on the steps. He was hurrying by when he recognized in the worn and ragged figure his former schoolmate, Tom Hughes. A few weeks growth of beard had failed to hide his identity.

"Hello, Tom, I thought you were dead," said Ennis as he helped Hughes to his feet.

"I'm pretty near it, Billy," said Hughes. "I haven't had anything to eat for two days. Bill, you are a son-of-a-gun. Get me sent to the island. I don't want to pass in on the street."

Ennis took Hughes to a restaurant and spread a meal before him. Then he took him to court.

JOKE LED TO ARREST OF ACTRESS'S FRIEND.

Believing that she had been robbed instead of having a joke played on her as it turned out, Ellen Veier, an actress of No. 24 Manhattan avenue, caused Albert Vohn, a lecturer in a theatre at Fifty-eighth street and Third avenue, and living at No. 156 East Seventy-second street, to be arrested, but this morning in the Yorkville Court she pleaded that Vohn be discharged.

Vohn called on Miss Veier. After he left she missed two rings valued at $150. She hurried to Fifty-eighth street, where she found a policeman and had Vohn arrested. Magistrate Finn held him in $1,000 bail for examination in the West Side Court.

Shortly after Magistrate Finn opened court this morning Miss Veier appeared and rushing up to the Magistrate said she had found the rings in her raincoat, where they had been placed by a lady friend who wanted to play a joke on her.

Magistrate Finn sent the actress to
the West Side Court.

I AM A MOTHER

How many American women in lonely homes to-day long for this blessing to come into their lives, and to be able to utter these words, but because of some organic derangement this happiness is denied them.

Every woman interested in this subject should know that preparation for healthy maternity is accomplished by the use of
LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

Mrs. Maggie Gilmer, of West Union, S.C., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:
"I was greatly run down in health from a weakness peculiar to my sex.
When Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me, it not only restored me to perfect health, but to my delight I am a mother."

Mrs. Josephine Hall, of Bardstown, Ky., writes:
"I was a very great sufferer from female troubles, and my physician failed to help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound not only restored me to perfect health, but I am now a proud mother."

S.S.S. A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which is carried through the circulation to all portions of the system. Every muscle, nerve, bone and joint absorbs the acid, pain-producing poison, causing aches, inflammation, stiffness and other well known symptoms of the disease. Permanent relief from the pains and discomfort of Rheumatism cannot be expected from the use of liniments, plasters, and other external treatment which does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Such measures give temporary relief, but in order to cure Rheumatism the uric acid and inflammatory poison must be expelled from the blood. S.S.S. cures Rheumatism because it is a perfect blood purifier. It goes down into the circulation, neutralizes the uric acid and drives it from the blood. S.S.S. expels the irritating, inflammatory matter which is causing the pain, swelling and other discomfort, enriches the weak, sour blood, and permanently cures Rheumatism. In all forms of Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, S.S.S. will be found a safe, vegetable remedy, possessing the properties needed to cure, and at the same time a medicine that builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effects. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.
